CHICAGO, SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1896.

FAST RACING AT FORSYTH.

The feature of the racing at Forsyth yesterday was the speed that came out of the contention. The finishes were open, though there were sharp battles behind some of the leaders, Jennie June just outran Hi Henry and won in a jocose sort of way by four lengths in 1:02 for the five furlongs. Then, right at the end, Tom Carter's, The Deuce, who was fast last year, led his lot a merry dance and won all the way the five furlongs in 1:01 3-4. Magnet can probably do the distance in a minute or so, when he's on good terms with himself.

May Galop, off well, beat Nikita, Pert and a big lot in the opening race. Nikita—always outrun—was at odds on.

Col. Roller had better luck in the second race, which Lillian Wilkes, kept busy most of the route by mannikin Clay, won all the way. The natural favorite of the day, Floreanna, won the third event. The mare's a jade, Ben Falk would not bet on her and she went to 7 to 5 and won like "a real lady."

Thus but two of the six favorites won. Betting was fair to the same ring, the weather hot and crowd large.

Tully Coulter has sold his black filly Devoir 2-year-old, by Fordham—Helen Broeck to Angelo Cella. Price, $650.

G. W. Poole discovered just before the races yesterday, that the 2-year-old chestnut filly by Bramble—Forethought, which he had entered as Prudent, had already been named Provident by Eugene Leigh, from whom he bought her.

Two Indiana records were broken at Forsyth yesterday. May Galop reduced the three-quarter time from 1:15 1/4 to 1:15, and The Deuce the five furlongs from 1:02 to 1:01 3-4.

The new time table on the Lake Shore goes into effect to-day, and the Illinois Central will also run trains to the track.

URANIA TOO FAST TO MEET.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 17.—The appearance of Urania in the handicap to-day frightened all others out, including Lady Inez McGuigan declared that he wanted none of the Kendall Stable filly's game. Racing was tame, a big crowd was out and track fast. Marcel was allowed to start and won the mile and one-half as she pleased. Burns, who owns Feedman, entered his horse after he saw Marcel was allowed to start. Pat Dunne's Agent ran a disappointing race and cost his owner a big bet.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Barney Schreiber is always ready to pick up a good mare for his Woodlands harem which includes Pennyroyal, Ohio Belle, Lemon Blossom and Innocence. Before leaving California he got Gratitude, the dam of Lottie Mills.

Patsy McDermott, a good rider, has reached an ignominious end by being ruled off at Elkton, Md., for pulling Doc Birch.

Sam Doggett has been licensed to ride in 1896 by the Jockey Club. So have jockeys Joseph Millett, John Donnelly, R. Doggett, M. Burns, L. Scott, Walter Wyburn, Samuel Ryers, John Callahan, J. Hill, Frank Warren, E. Hayzell.

The latest trainers licenses for 1896 issued by the Jockey Club were to J. J. Sheridan, D. Higgins, Frank Regan, William Antonidus, R. W. Walden, R. J. Walden, James Frayling, William C. Smith, Frank Marcott, George W. Meehan, M. Clancy, T. F. Barrett, Ira R. Harris, H. Wehrhahn, Ed C. Moser, Frank Alexander, Jule Garson, Lewis Elmore, W. J. Barrett, Thomas Greene.

Col. Simmons and Clarence McDowell will officiate as judges during the Washington meeting which begins Saturday.

Ben Brush worked 9 furlongs in 2:04 under penalty of weight at Gravesend last Tuesday. The colt goes to Louisville to-day.

No words but good words can be said about the officials of the Indiana tracks. There never was a body of men who have dealt with what was before them more promptly, intelligently and efficiently than these men are doing.

The proposed running circuit, which was to include Toledo, Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Elkhart, Saginaw and Windsor, Ontario, has been abandoned.—Daily Mercury. Don't be so clumsy. Terre Haute and Indianapolis will race and race well this summer.

Parthenia, the dam of Parthamax, the good Californian colt, is a half-sister of Parole. She was a fine race mare, winner of the Foam Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, beating George Kinney, Maiden, by Lexington, Parthenia's dam, threw, besides Parole, James A., Mincola, Perfection, Pawnee, Pappoose, Paw-Paw and Powhattan, all by Leamington.

Tommy Lottridge intends to take his stable to Chicago at the end of the San Francisco meeting.—San Francisco Sporting World. This means the horses of George Rose and Atkins & Lottridge.

It is announced that W. O. Parmer, of Nashville, and others have leased the Riverside Park, at Montgomery, Ala., and will hold a big meeting.

Galen Brown has sold Claude Hill to Dr. H. E. Rowell of Figaro and Collins fame.

"Curley" Brown's starting machine will be given a trial at Bennings, as well as that controlled by Sullivan & Clarke, eastern patentees.

Col. Lewis M. Clark is still missing, though he engaged to preside at the Newport meeting. But he is in New York. It looks as if some other than the rotund Colonel would officiate at Louisville.

Burns & Waterhouse captured three events, their good filly Dura by Racine winning the two-year-old race. The summary:
